

DELIVERANCE FROM OPPRESSION

Walking in Freedom

YOUR AFTERCARE GUIDE

Congratulations on stepping into freedom! Deliverance is a genuine work of the Holy Spirit, and Heaven rejoices with you. But receiving freedom is only the beginning. The Word tells us the enemy will look for an opportune moment to try to regain ground (Luke 4:13, 1 Peter 5:8). This guide will help you stand firm, stay full, and walk in the freedom Jesus purchased for you.

1. Put On the Whole Armor of God

Your armor is described in Ephesians 6:10-18. Put it on daily:

- Loins girded about with truth
- The breastplate of righteousness
- Feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace
- The shield of faith
- The helmet of salvation
- The sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God
- Praying in the Spirit

Pay special attention to the helmet of salvation and guard your thought life. Most attacks come first through the mind. Become watchful of negative or accusing thoughts, separate them from your own, refuse them, and replace them with truth.

“Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy, meditate on these things."

PHILIPPIANS 4:8 NKJV

2. Confess and Declare God's Word Over Your Life

Negative confession opens the door back to the enemy. Positive confession is faith expressed. Speak what God's Word says about you, not how you feel in the moment. Declare these scriptures over your life daily:

"Behold, I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you."

LUKE 10:19 NKJV

"And I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven."

MATTHEW 16:19 NKJV

3. Stay in the Scripture

God's Word is a mirror to the soul, a lamp for guidance, a cleansing agent, a two-edged sword, and food for your spirit. No one can maintain deliverance apart from staying in the Word. Set realistic daily goals, such as a few chapters from the Gospels, a Psalm, or a Proverb. If the Holy Spirit stops you on a verse, linger there. If a full reading plan feels like too much, memorize one verse a day and repeat it to yourself.

4. Crucify the Flesh and Break Old Patterns

Take up your cross daily and follow Jesus (Luke 9:23). Identify old habit patterns that were set up in league with the spirits that were cast out, and deliberately break them. If fleshly appetites, desires, and lusts are not brought to the cross, a door is left open for demons to try to return (Galatians 5:19-21).

- Identify specific habits, environments, or relationships that were tied to bondage and deliberately replace them
- Reckon yourself dead to sin and alive to God (Romans 6:6-11)
- Avoid people, places, and media that pull you back toward old patterns

5. Develop a Life of Continuous Praise and Prayer

Praise silences the enemy. Praise is not only an attitude, it is the expression of thankfulness, adoration, and joy through speaking, singing, shouting, and worship. Pray in the Spirit and also with your understanding (1 Corinthians 14:14-15). Being filled with the Holy Spirit is not a one-time event but a continual choice made through a pure heart, thanksgiving, and humility.

"Pray without ceasing."

1 THESSALONIANS 5:17 NKJV

"And do not be drunk with wine, in which is dissipation; but be filled with the Spirit."

EPHESIANS 5:18 NKJV

6. Maintain a Life of Fellowship

It is the sheep that wanders from the flock that is most endangered. Stay planted in a healthy church body, find and fulfill your function within it, and do not isolate. No matter how free you get, returning to old ungodly friendships, relationships, or environments will tangle you back into bondage. Choose your companions wisely.

"Do not be deceived: 'Evil company corrupts good habits.'"

1 CORINTHIANS 15:33 NKJV

"Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching."

HEBREWS 10:25 NKJV

7. Commit Yourself Totally to Christ

Determine that every thought, word, and action will reflect the nature of Christ. Abide in Him so the fruit of the Spirit comes forth in abundance, because demonic spirits are enemies of that fruit. Faith and trust in God are your greatest weapons against the lies of the enemy.

- Commit to 30 days of post-deliverance disciplines: Scripture, prayer, worship, and an accountability partner or mentor
- Journal regularly and record what God shows you, prayers answered, and growth observed
- If you were not baptized as a believing adult, pursue water baptism as a powerful declaration of your new life (Matthew 28:19-20)

"Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stands in the path of sinners, nor sits in the seat of the scornful; but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and in His law he meditates day and night. He shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that brings forth its fruit in its season, whose leaf also shall not wither; and whatever he does shall prosper."

PSALM 1:1-3 NKJV

QUICK REMINDERS FOR THE DAYS AHEAD

- Thank God for your freedom daily. Thanksgiving is one of the highest forms of faith. It declares the enemy no longer has a hold on you.
- Stay on guard. The enemy looks for an opportune time to regain ground. Do not be alarmed if old symptoms or thoughts try to resurface for a season. This does not mean you were not truly delivered.
- Focus on Jesus, not the fight. You do not win by arguing with the enemy or analyzing every thought. Resist him briefly in the name of Jesus, then turn your attention back to worship. "Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you." (James 4:7 NKJV)
- Repent quickly when you miss it. "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." (1 John 1:9 NKJV) Do not let shame or self-condemnation linger. It is not from God.
- Give it time. Healing of the mind and emotions can take weeks or even months after deliverance. The Holy Spirit is gentle and finishes what He starts in you.

A BLESSING PRAYER OVER YOU

May the Lord bless you and keep you. May His face, His favor, shine upon you and give you peace. His goodness and mercy follow you all the days of your life. You are blessed coming and going. May your storehouse be blessed with abundance and overflow.

May you be healthy and strong in body, mind, and spirit, well balanced in every area of your life. May you be blessed with an attentive ear to the Holy Spirit, to hear His voice and obey Him. Be blessed with clear direction and a disciplined life.

Be blessed with success, prosperity, and provision. May you be blessed with revelation and spiritual perception of His truth. May you be assured of His love, grace, and righteousness. May you move out in faith and expectancy.

Be blessed and empowered to prosper in your walk with the Lord Jesus Christ and the fullness of the Holy Spirit. In the name of Jesus.

Who I Am In Christ

DAILY DECLARATIONS • NKJV

Read these declarations aloud daily. Speak them over yourself with faith. What you consistently confess, you begin to believe. What you believe shapes your identity and your freedom.
